A note from Mrs. Vorwald and Mrs. Huseman:

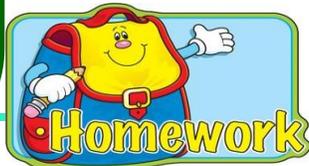

We have completed our MAP testing for the winter session! We will go over the scores at conferences in March. Your children are learning so much and getting better and better at working cooperatively. We are working on improving on our multiplication facts and reading levels. Please be sure your child is reading for at least 20 minutes each night. It is so important for them to build their reading skills!

Please look over the Scholastic book order in the binders. You can also order books online. There are some great deals (books for $1 even!) When you purchase books, our class will earn points toward books for our classroom! Our code is KPC9V. Check it out!

Reminders:

- * Your child should be reading each night and logging it in their agenda.
- * Please check your child's binder and agenda each night for notes and important information. Please sign your child's agenda nightly!
- * Don't forget to sign up for Remind 101. Just text 81010 with the message @mrsvorw to receive reminder texts from me about things going on in our classroom!
